Case No. 20CV372366

CIVIL RIGHTS - EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

The California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) brings this action against Cisco Systems, Inc. (Cisco) to remedy workplace discrimination, harassment, and retaliation violations at its San Jose, California corporate headquarters under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Cal. Gov't Code § 12900, et seq. (FEHA). Specifically, Cisco engaged in unlawful employment practices on the bases of religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color against Complainant John Doe,¹ and after Doe opposed such unlawful practices, Cisco retaliated against him.

¹ Because of the stigma and potential threats of violence associated with a person's status as Dalit, DFEH uses a fictitious name for Complainant to protect his privacy and protect him from further discrimination, harassment, or retaliation based on his caste and related characteristics. Through the DFEH's administrative process, Defendants have been made aware of Doe's legal name.

Cisco also failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent such unlawful practices in its workplace, as required under FEHA.

INTRODUCTION

1. John Doe is Dalit Indian, a population once known as the “Untouchables,” who are the most disadvantaged people under India’s centuries-old caste system.² As a strict Hindu social and religious hierarchy, India’s caste system defines a person’s status based on their religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color—or the caste into which they are born—and will remain until death.³ At the bottom of the Indian hierarchy is the Dalit, typically the darkest complexion caste, who were traditionally subject to “untouchability” practices which segregated them by social custom and legal mandate. Although de jure segregation ended in India, lower caste persons like Dalits continue to face de facto segregation and discrimination in all spheres.⁴ Not only do Dalits endure the most severe inequality and unfair treatment in both the public and private sectors, they are often targets of hate violence and torture. Of India’s approximately 1.3 billion people, about 200 million are Dalits.⁵

2. Unlike Doe, most Indian immigrants in the United States are from upper castes. For example, in 2003, only 1.5 percent of Indian immigrants in the United States were Dalits or members of lower castes.⁶ More than 90 percent were from high or dominant castes. Similarly, upon information and belief, the same is true of the Indian employees in Cisco’s workforce in San Jose, California.

² Complainant John Doe is Dalit because of his religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color. The caste to which someone belongs is immutable and determines their social status in traditional Indian culture. Social stratification and discrimination based on caste persists in India and among those living outside India, including in America. 3. As alleged below, at Cisco's San Jose headquarters, Doe worked with a team of entirely Indian employees. The team members grew-up in India and immigrated as adults to the United States. Except for Doe, the entire team are also from the high castes in India. As beneficiaries of the caste system, Doe's higher caste supervisors and co-workers imported the discriminatory system's practices into their team and Cisco's workplace.

4. Doe's supervisors and co-workers, Defendants Sundar Iyer and Ramana Kompella, are from India's highest castes. Because both knew Doe is Dalit, they had certain expectations for him at Cisco. Doe was expected to accept a caste hierarchy within the workplace where Doe held the lowest status within the team and, as a result, received less pay, fewer opportunities, and other inferior terms and conditions of employment because of his religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color. They also expected him to endure a hostile work environment. When Doe unexpectedly opposed the unlawful practices, contrary to the traditional order between the Dalit and higher castes, Defendants retaliated against him. Worse yet, Cisco failed to even acknowledge the unlawful nature of the conduct, nor did it take any steps necessary to prevent such discrimination, harassment, and retaliation from continuing in its workplace.

5. Not only did Cisco disregard Doe, but also its own workforce. For decades, similar to Doe's team, Cisco's technical workforce has been—and continues to be—predominantly South Asian Indian. According to the 2017 EEO-1 Establishment Report (EEO-1 Report), for example, Cisco has a significant overrepresentation of Asian employees compared to other companies in the communications, equipment and manufacturing industry (NAICS 3342) in the same geographic area, which is statistically significant at nearly 30 standard deviations.⁷ Such overrepresentation is also present in management and professional job categories. In addition to Cisco's direct workforce, Cisco also employs a significant

⁷ 2017 EEO-1 Report for Cisco Systems, Inc. at 170 West Tasman Drive in San Jose, California. Because Cisco is a federal contractor and employs 50 or more employees in California and the United States, Cisco is required to file an Employer Information Report EEO-1, also known as the EEO-1 Report. The EEO-1 Report requires employers to report employment data for all employees categorized by sex, race/ethnicity, and job category. number of South Asian Indian workers through Indian-owned consulting firms.⁸ When combining its direct employees and consultants together, Cisco is among the top five H-1B visa users in the United States.⁹ Over 70 percent of these H1-B workers come from India.¹⁰ Outside of San Jose, Cisco's second largest workforce is in India.

6. Although Cisco has employed a predominantly South Asian Indian workforce for decades, Cisco was—and continues to be—wholly unprepared to prevent, remedy, or deter the unlawful conduct against Doe or similarly situated lower caste workers. Cisco failed to take any steps whatsoever to prevent “. . . inequalities associated with [c]aste status, ritual purity, and social exclusion [from] becom[ing] embedded . . .” into its workplace, which is a documented problem for “. . . American mainstream institutions that have significant South Asian immigrant populations.”¹¹ A 2018 survey of South Asians in the U.S. found that 67% of Dalits reported being treated unfairly at their American workplaces because of their caste and related characteristics.¹² However, few South Asian employees raised concerns to their American employers, because they believe “their concerns will not be given weight” or will lead to “negative consequences to their career.”¹³ This is precisely what happened to Doe at Cisco.

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

28. Beginning in the November 1, 2016, Defendants Cisco, Iyer, and Kompella engaged in unlawful employment practices, in violation of California Government Code, section § 12940 subdivisions (a), (j), (h), and (k). These practices include but are not limited to the practices described below.

1 29. Complainant Doe's ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color is Dalit Indian. Doe
2 has a darker complexion relative to other persons of non-Dalit Indian descent. Doe's religion is Hindu.
3 As a Dalit, he also is known as being from the Untouchable or Scheduled Caste.

4 30. Doe has over 20 years of experience in the software development lifecycle process at 5 startups and established companies. In or around September 2015, Iyer recruited and hired Doe as a
6 Principal Engineer for Cisco because of his expertise and experience. As the head of the Cisco team,
7 Iyer hired and supervised Doe, having the authority to control his day-to-day assignments, discipline,
8 discharge, direct, and transfer Doe. Upon information and belief, Iyer is Brahmin.

9 31. In or around October 2016, two of Doe's colleagues told Doe that Iyer informed them
10 that Doe was from the "Scheduled Caste" (Dalit) and enrolled in the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT)
11 through affirmative action. Iyer was aware of Doe's caste because they attended IIT at the same time.

12 32. In or around November 1, 2016, Doe confronted Iyer about disclosing Doe's caste to 13 other Cisco employees. Iyer asked Doe who claimed he made such a comment. After Doe shared the 14 names of his colleagues, Iyer denied the comment and stated Doe's colleagues were not telling the truth.

15 33. In or around November 21, 2016, Doe contacted Cisco's human resources (HR) and 16 Employee Relations to file a discrimination complaint against Iyer.

17 34. Six days after Doe's first contact with Cisco's HR and employee relations, Iyer told Doe
18 he was taking away Doe's role as lead on two technologies.

19 35. On or around November 28, 2016, Iyer promoted two of Doe's colleagues to head
20 engineering roles, one of whom was Defendant Kompella. Kompella was made Head of Southbound
21 Engineering. Upon information and belief, Kompella is Brahmin or at least of a higher caste than Dalit.
22 With this new title, Defendant Kompella received a raise of approximately 15% or more. As the Head of 23 Southbound Engineering, Kompella had the ability to direct the day-to-day assignments and recommend 24 employment actions for those on his team, including Doe.

25 36. On or around November 28, 2016, Iyer also removed team members from the third
26 technology Doe was working on and did not formally integrate the third technology into either team
27 headed by the two new Heads of Engineering. As a result of these changes, Doe's role was reduced to 28 that of a system architect as an independent contributor, and he was isolated from all his colleagues.

1 37. On or around December 8, 2016, Doe submitted a written complaint about Iyer's
2 disclosure of Doe's caste, Doe's complaint to Iyer, and Iyer's retaliatory employment actions, including
3 the sudden changes to Doe's job duties. He also complained that Iyer made discriminatory comments to 4 a colleague and about a job applicant because of the applicant's religion (Muslim).

5 38. Cisco's Employee Relations Manager, Brenda Davis, conducted the investigation into 6 Doe's December 2016 complaint. Davis' internal investigation notes revealed that Iyer admitted that he
7 told Doe's colleagues that Doe was not on the "main list." Among those from India, it is commonly
8 known that students not on the main list are admitted to IIT through an affirmative action program
9 designed for those from the "Scheduled Castes" or those outside the caste system. Therefore, stating that 10 someone is not on the "main list" effectively reveals their caste. Despite this, Davis took no further 11 action and failed to even contact relevant witnesses or Doe.

12 39. Cisco Employee Relations staff, including Davis, also indicated that caste discrimination
13 was not unlawful. As a result, Davis did not recommend any corrective action against Iyer. Iyer also 14 admitted that he made a joke about Doe's co-worker's religion and talked about an applicant's Muslim-
15 related appearance. Still, Davis did not recommend any corrective action. On or around February 2,
16 2017, Davis closed her investigation finding all of Doe's complaints were unsubstantiated.

17 40. Iyer's retaliatory efforts continued. He further isolated Doe from the team when he 18 disparaged Doe to other employees, misrepresented that Doe did not perform his job adequately, and 19 told Doe's team members that they should avoid working with him.

20 41. On or around March 2, 2017, Doe sought review of Davis' investigation findings. After 21 repeated attempts to have Cisco review Davis' findings, HR official Tara Powell finally reopened the 22 investigation on or around April 25, 2017. Powell re-interviewed one of the employees to whom Iyer
23 made the comment about Doe's caste in or around October 2015. The employee stated that he learned
24 about Doe's caste but refused to tell Powell how he knew, noting that he did not want to say anything
25 about Iyer because they had known each other for a long time. He also stated that he thought Doe was 26 being treated unfairly and that he was very technically able but was being excluded at work. Powell did
27 not attempt to contact for an interview the other employee who witnessed Iyer's disclosure of Doe's
28 caste. Two additional witnesses told Powell that they feared losing their jobs or otherwise being

1 retaliated against for speaking out against Iyer. One of those employees also told Powell that he thought
2 Doe was very competent and asked appropriate questions, but that Iyer was setting Doe up to push him
3 out of the company.

4 42. Powell's investigation also uncovered a spreadsheet that showed anticipated yearly
5 raises, bonuses, and restricted stock unit awards that Iyer had promised Doe. These raises, bonuses, and
6 awards never materialized when promised. But Powell also found that four out of the eight other team
7 members received raises in or around October 2016.

8 43. In or around August 2017, Powell concluded she could not substantiate any caste-based
9 or related discrimination or retaliation against Doe. Powell, however, determined that Iyer mocked
10 another employee's religion, and thus violated Cisco's Code of Conduct. Still, no immediate corrective 11 action was taken.

12 44. Despite Doe's repeated attempts to bring the caste-based and related discrimination,
13 harassment, and retaliation to Defendant Cisco's attention in 2016 and 2017, Cisco failed to recognize 14 casteism as a form of unlawful religion-, ancestry-, national origin/ethnicity-, and race/color-based 15 discrimination or harassment under state or federal law and failed to conduct a thorough investigation.
16 While the investigation confirmed Doe was increasingly isolated and treated unfairly by Iyer and 17 Kompella, Cisco failed to take timely and appropriate corrective action. Moreover, Cisco's training was 18 deficient in that it did not adequately train managerial employees on workplace discrimination, 19 harassment, and retaliation, nor did the company prevent, deter, remedy, or monitor casteism in its 20 workforce.

21 45. On or around February 26, 2018, Kompella became the Interim Head of Engineering for 22 Cisco's team after Iyer stepped down. In his new role, Kompella supervised Doe and continued to 23 discriminate, harass, and retaliate against Doe by, for example, giving him assignments that were 24 impossible to complete under the circumstances. Kompella also began requiring Doe to submit weekly
25 status reports to him and Senior Vice President/General Manager Tom Edsall.

26 46. On or around May 21, 2018, Rajeev Gupta took over from Kompella and became the 27 Director of Engineering. In that role, Gupta supervised Doe.
28

47. Two months later, in or around July 2018, Doe applied for the position of Director of Research and Development Operations with Gupta. According to Gupta's interview notes, he ranked Doe as "below average" in six out of eight categories and as "meeting requirements" in the remaining two categories. But Gupta's assessment of Doe was improperly influenced by Iyer's retaliatory employment actions. Gupta specifically cited Doe's lead role being taken away and his job reduced to that of an independent contributor in November 2016. Gupta's notes also reflected Iyer's retaliatory criticisms about Doe's work product, social skills, and insubordination. Doe did not get the position.

48. The effect of the unlawful employment practices complained of above was to deprive Doe of equal employment opportunities, and otherwise adversely affect his status as employees, because of religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color.

49. The unlawful employment practices complained of above were intentional.

50. The unlawful employment practices complained of above were done with malice or with reckless indifference to Doe's federally and state-protected civil rights.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of FEHA: Discrimination on the Basis of Religion, Ancestry, National Origin/Ethnicity, and Race/Color

(Cal. Gov't Code, § 12940, subd. (a))
Against Defendant Cisco

51. The DFEH incorporates and realleges all previous allegations as if fully set forth herein.

52. The FEHA guarantees all employees a workplace free from unlawful discrimination and harassment based on the employee's religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color. (Cal. Gov't Code, § 12940, subd. (a).)

53. As alleged above, Cisco discriminated against Doe by subjecting him to disparate terms and conditions of employment based on his religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color. Among other actions, Cisco reassigned Doe's job duties and isolated him from his colleagues, denied him a raise, denied him work opportunities that would have led to a raise, denied him a promotion to the Head of Engineering, and denied him a promotion to the Director of Research and Development Operations.

54. Cisco subjected Doe to discriminatory comments and conduct because of his religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color

57. As a direct result of these unlawful employment practices, Doe suffered emotional distress including, but not limited to, emotional pain, suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, and hopelessness, in an amount to be proven at trial.

59. Defendant Cisco engaged in, and by its refusal to comply with the law, demonstrated it will continue to engage in, the unlawful employment discrimination described herein unless it is enjoined pursuant to the FEHA. Unless Defendant Cisco is enjoined from failing or refusing to comply with the mandates of the FEHA, Doe and other persons' rights to seek or hold employment free of unlawful discrimination will continue to be violated.

63. As alleged above, as supervisors for Cisco's team, Defendants Iyer and Kompella subjected Doe to offensive comments and other misconduct based on his caste, which includes his religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color, so severe or pervasive that it created a hostile work environment. Among other things, Iyer and Kompella's comments and conduct include revealing Doe's caste to his colleagues, disparaging him to the team, isolating him from the rest of the team, reducing his role to that of an independent contributor, giving him assignments that were impossible to complete under the circumstances, and requiring him to submit weekly status reports. Such a work environment where a stigmatizing personal characteristic such as caste is publicized and used to subjugate an individual in order to maintain a centuries-old hierarchy is hostile, intimidating, offensive, oppressive, and abusive. Other employees corroborated that Doe was isolated from the rest of the team and that Iyer and Kompella were responsible for it. These were observations Cisco was made aware of during its internal investigations. As evidenced by Doe's repeated internal complaints, he in fact considered the work environment to be hostile, intimidating, offensive, oppressive, and abusive.

64. As supervisors for Cisco, Defendants Iyer and Kompella subjected Doe to offensive comments and other misconduct based on his caste, which includes his religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color, so severe or pervasive that it created a hostile work environment.

65. Defendants Iyer and Kompella are individually liable for their own harassing conduct in violation of the FEHA.

66. Because Defendants Iyer and Kompella were supervisors within the meaning of the FEHA, Defendant Cisco is liable for their harassing conduct. Defendant Cisco knew or should have known of the conduct as a result of Doe's internal complaints and is liable for its failure to take immediate and appropriate corrective action.

67. As a direct result of these unlawful employment practices, Doe suffered economic injuries including, but not limited to, lost wages and other compensation, in an amount to be proven at trial.

68. As a direct result of these unlawful employment practices, Doe suffered emotional distress including, but not limited to, emotional pain, suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, and hopelessness, in an amount to be proven at trial.

69. Defendant Cisco's actions were willful, malicious, fraudulent, and oppressive, and were committed with the wrongful intent to injure Doe and in conscious disregard of his rights.

70. Defendant Cisco engaged in, and by its refusal to comply with the law, demonstrated it will continue to engage in, the unlawful employment discrimination described herein unless it is enjoined pursuant to the FEHA. Unless Defendant Cisco is enjoined from failing or refusing to comply with the mandates of the FEHA, Doe and other persons' rights to seek or hold employment free of unlawful discrimination will continue to be violated.

71. Plaintiff DFEH lacks any plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law to prevent such harm, injury, and loss that is the subject of this complaint and will continue until this Court enjoins the unlawful conduct and grants other injunctive relief as prayed for herein.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of FEHA: Retaliation
(Cal. Gov't Code, § 12940, subd. (h))
Against Defendant Cisco

72. The DFEH incorporates and realleges all previous allegations as if fully set forth herein.

73. California law also guarantees each employees' right to a workplace and business environment free from unlawful retaliation because the employee opposed discriminatory or harassing practices that are unlawful under the FEHA. Employers are liable for the retaliatory conduct of supervisors. (Cal. Gov. Code, § 12940, subd. (h).)

74. As alleged above, as supervisors for Cisco, Defendants Iyer and Kompella retaliated against Doe for opposing their discriminatory and harassing conduct by confronting Iyer and filing internal discrimination complaints. Among other things, Doe engaged in protected activity by confronting Iyer about disclosing his caste to colleagues and by repeatedly trying to bring the caste-based and related discrimination and harassment to Cisco's attention. Immediately afterwards, Iyer and Kompella subjected Doe to adverse employment actions including reassigning his job duties, isolating him from colleagues, giving him assignments that were impossible to complete under the circumstances, denying him work opportunities that could have led to a raise, denying him a raise, and denying him promotions. Cisco aided the retaliation.

75. As supervisors for Cisco, Defendants Iyer and Kompella retaliated against Doe for opposing their discriminatory and harassing conduct by confronting Iyer and filing internal discrimination complaints and Cisco aided the retaliation.

76. Defendant Cisco is liable for the retaliatory conduct of Defendants Iyer and Kompella.

77. As a direct result of these unlawful employment practices, Doe suffered economic injuries including, but not limited to, lost wages and other compensation, in an amount to be proven at trial.

78. As a direct result of these unlawful employment practices, Doe suffered emotional distress including, but not limited to, emotional pain, suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, and hopelessness, in an amount to be proven at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of FEHA: Failure to Take All Reasonable Steps to Prevent Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation

(Cal. Gov't Code, § 12940, subd. (k))
Against Defendant Cisco

82. The DFEH incorporates and realleges all previous allegations as if fully set forth herein.

83. California Government Code section 12940(k) provides that it is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to fail to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent discrimination, harassment, and retaliation from occurring. Employers have the affirmative duty to take all reasonable steps to prevent and promptly correct discriminatory, harassing, and retaliatory conduct.

1 (Cal. Code Regs. tit. 2, § 11023, subd. (a).) Cisco's conduct, as described above, constitutes a failure to
2 take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent discrimination, harassment, and retaliation in violation of 3 California Government Code section 12940, subdivision (k).

4 84. An actionable claim for violation of California Government Code section 12940(k) on 5 behalf of a complainant exists when an underlying claim of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation is 6 established. (Cal. Code Regs. tit. 2, § 11023, subd. (a)(2).)

7 85. As alleged above, Defendant Cisco failed to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent
8 discrimination, harassment, and retaliation from occurring within its South Asian Indian workforce.
9 Among other things, Defendant Cisco failed to develop anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policies
10 and practices that recognize and prohibit caste discrimination as a form of unlawful discrimination under 11 state and federal law. Defendant Cisco also failed to provide appropriate training to managers, 12 supervisors employees, human resources, and employee relations personnel on how to identify,
13 investigate, remediate, and prevent caste-based discrimination and harassment, or retaliation against 14 employees or persons who oppose discriminatory and harassing practices that are unlawful under the
15 FEHA.

16 86. Defendant Cisco failed to prevent discrimination and harassment by its managers and 17 supervisors against Doe because of his caste.

18 87. Defendant Cisco failed to prevent retaliation by its managers and supervisors against Doe
19 because he opposed discriminatory and harassing practices that are unlawful under the FEHA.

20 88. As a direct result of Cisco's failures, Doe was subjected to unlawful discrimination,
21 harassment, and retaliation by Cisco's managers and supervisors, suffering economic injuries including,
22 but not limited to, lost wages and other compensation, in an amount to be proven at trial.

23 89. As a direct result of Cisco's failures, Doe was subjected to unlawful discrimination,
24 harassment, and retaliation by Cisco's managers and supervisors, suffering emotional distress including,
25 but not limited to, emotional pain, suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, and hopelessness, in an
26 amount to be proven at trial.

27 90. Defendant Cisco's actions were willful, malicious, fraudulent, and oppressive, and were 28 committed with the wrongful intent to injure Doe and in conscious disregard of his rights.

91. Defendant Cisco engaged in, and by its refusal to comply with the law, demonstrated it will continue to engage in, the unlawful employment discrimination described herein unless it is enjoined pursuant to the FEHA. Unless Defendant Cisco is enjoined from failing or refusing to comply with the mandates of the FEHA, Doe and other persons' rights to seek or hold employment free of unlawful discrimination will continue to be violated.

92. Plaintiff DFEH lacks any plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law to prevent such harm, injury, and loss that is the subject of this complaint and will continue until this Court enjoins the unlawful conduct and grants other injunctive relief as prayed for herein.

93. Plaintiff DFEH also seeks monetary relief for Cisco's failure to take all reasonable steps to prevent harassment from occurring.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of FEHA: Failure to Take All Reasonable Steps to Prevent Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation

(Cal. Gov't Code, § 12940, subd. (k); Cal. Code Regs. tit. 2, § 11023, subd. (a)(3))

On behalf of DFEH; Against Defendant Cisco

94. The DFEH incorporates and realleges all previous allegations as if fully set forth herein.

95. In an exercise of the DFEH's police powers, the DFEH may independently seek additional remedies for a violation of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(k). (Cal. Code Regs. tit. 2, § 11023, subd. (a)(3).) As the agency of the State of California charged with the administration, interpretation, investigation, and enforcement of FEHA, the DFEH brings this claim in the name of the DFEH on behalf of all Indian persons who are or are perceived to be Dalit, of lower castes, or who fall outside the caste system, who are employed by or may seek employment with Cisco in the future.

96. As alleged above, Defendant Cisco failed to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent discrimination, harassment, and retaliation from occurring within its South Asian Indian workforce. Among other things, Defendant Cisco failed to develop anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policies and practices that recognize and prohibit caste discrimination as a form of unlawful discrimination under state and federal law. Defendant Cisco also failed to provide appropriate training to managers, supervisors employees, human resources, and employee relations personnel on how to identify, investigate, remediate, and prevent caste-based discrimination and harassment, or retaliation against

2 FEHA.

3 97. Cisco's failure to take any reasonable steps to prevent, deter, remedy, or monitor casteism
4 and related violations in its workforce exposes a significant portion of its South Asian Indian workforce
5 to the risk of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation on the basis of their caste and related 6 characteristics.

7 98. Defendant Cisco engaged in, and by its refusal to comply with the law, demonstrated it
8 will continue to engage in, the unlawful employment discrimination described herein unless it is 9 enjoined pursuant to the FEHA. Unless Defendant Cisco is enjoined from failing or refusing to comply
10 with the mandates of the FEHA, Doe and other persons' rights to seek or hold employment free of 11 unlawful discrimination will continue to be violated.

12 99. Plaintiff DFEH lacks any plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law to prevent such 13 harm, injury, and loss that is the subject of this complaint and will continue until this Court enjoins the 14 unlawful conduct and grants other injunctive relief as prayed for herein.

15 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

16 WHEREFORE, the DFEH respectfully requests that this Court:

17 1. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents, servants,
18 employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them, from engaging in 19 discrimination and harassment based on religion, ancestry, national origin/ethnicity, and race/color.

20 2. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents, servants,
21 employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them, from engaging in 22 retaliation.

23 3. Order Defendants to institute and carry out policies, practices, and programs that provide 24 equal employment opportunities for individuals regardless of their religion, ancestry, national 25 origin/ethnicity, and race/color, and that eradicate the effects of their past and present unlawful 26 employment practices
27
28

The DFEH requests a jury trial on all questions of fact raised by its complaint.
